Dawa, can you give these to Mr. Rangma when he gets home? He should be coming back now after he took others beyond the mountains.

I have to go make dinner for my husband.

Looks... so good.

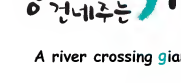

I will make you some for you later. He eats a lot, you know.

See you later.

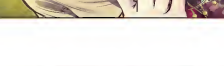

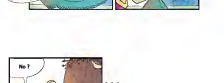

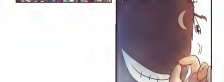

Ah, you are back already?

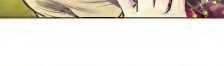

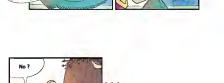

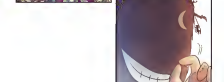

Isn't that for Mr. Rangma? Why are you eating it? Anyway, put it down and come here. I need to talk to you.

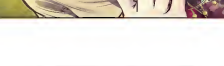

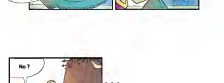

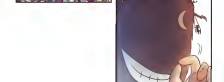

It was just one! You can't even tell the difference with this many! It's my tip for the errand!

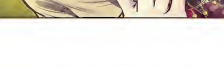

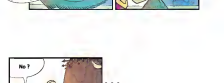

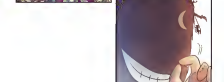

You lecture too much!

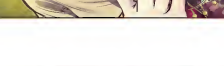

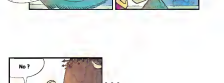

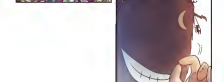

Come here, I said!

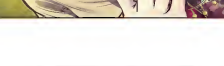

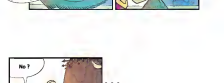

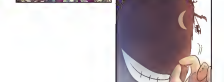

No! I hate you!

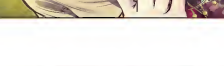

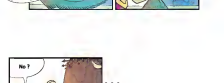

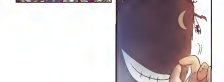

She has no idea ... Something bad might happen soon ...

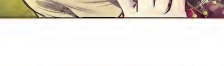

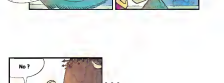

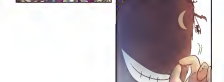

Sorry, I ate one because it looked so good.

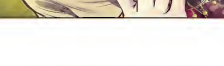

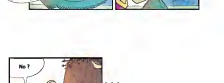

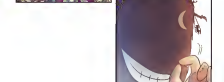

I made this for you though.

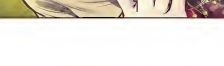

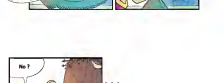

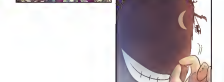

A handkerchief also for you.

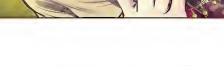

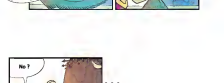

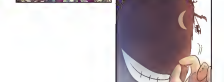

No?

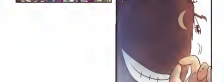

He has had that cloth ever since I saw him. Is it kind of racial fashion for him?

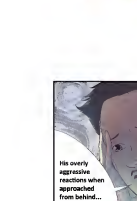

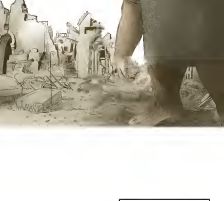

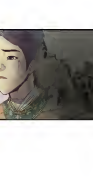

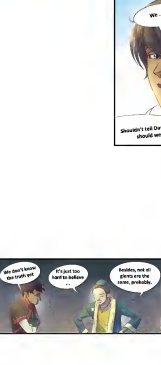

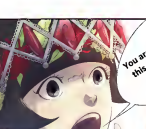

You could replace that cloth on your arm with this.

Okay, looks good! Don't lose it!

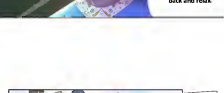

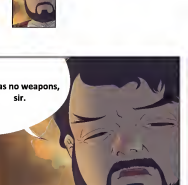

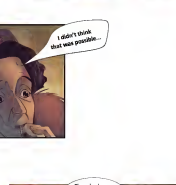

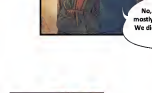

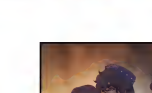

Um ...

Does anyone know Mr. Rangma before he came to us?

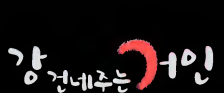

Because we never know what might happen in the future.

Then ...

Why don't we conquer Bø and claim the outside lands all together?
